

www.tcpmagic.com/double deception

Dan Miller and Gary Weimer have been entertaining audiences with their own comedy magic acts for decades. Recently, they have joined forces as Double Deception to present twice the magic and twice the fun. The pair offer a lighthearted look at the world using family-friendly humor and audience participation.

Spectators are amazed and entertained and can't help but laugh their way through the show. In the midst of it all, Dan and Gary illustrate Gospel truths that are easily identified by young and old alike. Such presentations are unique and memorable so, don't miss seeing Double Deception.